Author Visit

A huge thank you to Ian Brown, author of the Albert the Tortoise books, and Blue Bear Bookshop, Hartley Wintney, for visiting us yesterday! 📚🐢

The children thoroughly enjoyed listening to the wonderful stories and sharing in the excitement of the books. They also asked lots of interesting questions and were so enthusiastic throughout the visit.

Thank you for taking the time to come and share your love of books with us. It was a fantastic experience for everyone! 💙

Odd Sock Day
Monday 16th November 2026

Children are invited come into school wearing mismatched socks to celebrate what makes everyone unique, promote inclusion and encourage kindness.

Parking

A reminder to please park considerately when driving to school.

Please do not park in the staff car park without prior authorisation and only use the disabled bay if you have an appropriate badge.
